

Bowling Organizations

USBC

United States Bowling Congress is the governing body of bowling. They have over 9,000,000 members both men, women and junior amateur bowlers.

PBA

Professional Bowlers Association is the governing body for professional bowlers only. PBA does allow women professionals to become members and compete in nation and regional tournaments.

BPAA

Bowling Proprietors Association of America is an organization of bowling center owners and managers.